

- () 11. The same kind and amount of courtesy should be shown to every racial and national group.
- () 12. In order to become good Americans, immigrants should try to forget their national culture as soon as possible.
- () 13. Immigrants need take no interest in their adopted country, but should concentrate on their personal problems.
- () 14. The established members of a community can solve the problems of incoming groups without any assistance from the groups themselves.
- () 15. People of different national backgrounds have many needs and interests in common.
- () 16. There is scientific evidence that some races are intellectually superior to others.
- () 17. All nationalities and races represented in our country value family life.
- () 18. The literature of other nations has very little interest or value for Americans.
- () 19. Gossip and rumors unfavorable to any group should be checked against facts before being repeated as true.
- () 20. A man who speaks English with a foreign accent is very likely to be ignorant or stupid.
- () 21. The Chinese are hard-working people.
- () 22. The Chinese have not made or invented anything new.
- () 23. All schools should be open to those who want to go to them and who can profit from studying there.
- () 24. Most people from other countries are as bright as native-born Americans.
- () 25. The English language is the easiest language to learn.
- () 26. Other national groups have had leaders as great as George Washington.
- () 27. The children of immigrants can never become as good citizens as children of native-born Americans.
- () 28. The cause of poverty is that people will not save their money.
- () 29. People live in slums because they are not very bright.
- () 30. American-born people are better athletes than people born elsewhere.
- () 31. It is wrong for foreign-born workers to be paid less than American-born workers for the same work.
- () 32. Good workers get good jobs with good working conditions.
- () 33. Most criminals in the United States are of foreign birth.
- () 34. The government should build good homes for people who are now living in slums.
- () 35. White people are generally the tallest in the world.
- () 36. The Japanese are a race.
- () 37. Character is inherited, not learned.
- () 38. Americans have made more of the great discoveries of the world than people of other nations.
- () 39. Nations with a high standard of living have achieved it chiefly because of superior intelligence.